

Yurevichi in the 1800s

People

Jews started settling in Yurevichi in the late 1700s, with an estimated population of 65 in 1811. By 1897 this grew to 1,287, representing over 80% of all Yurevichi residents¹⁾.

add census information from wiki article. Where did this data come from? What does it imply about “Town” and “Village” and why is there Yurevichi 1 and Yurevichi 2? Russian Wikipedia Article: Юровичи \(Калинковичский район\) — Jon Jarker 2013/09/28 18:03

Economy

- probably managed on land owner's estate (Ostero??)

¹⁾

The Encyclopedia of Jewish Life

From:

<https://yurevichi.org/> - Yurevichi, Belarus

Permanent link:

https://yurevichi.org/history/imperial_russia?rev=1382126738

Last update: 2023/03/05 02:57

